COLLINS & KATZ FAMILY YMCA FINALLY OPENS AT WESTGATE & OHIO

▶ The long-awaited Collins & Katz Family YMCA formally opened its doors on Saturday, December 9, completing the more than six years of planning and building on what used to be a seldom-used corner of University High School.

The section of Uni at the corner of Westgate and Ohio Avenues was for years home to four classroom bungalows which were used mostly for storage. That all changed when the Metropolitan YMCA decided it needed to expand and modernize the Westside Y building at 1947 Sawtelle Avenue (at LaGrange), which was too small to house the interest and needs of the community.

A unique 2008 partnership with the Los Angeles Unified School District resulted in an agreement to remove of the old bungalows, a restroom, storage and locker room building, two tennis courts, basketball and handball courts adjacent to the football-field bleachers, and to the build what is now known as the Collins & Katz Family YMCA. As is typical of construction in Los Angeles, the Environmental Impact Report was completed in 2012 and the building was expected to be completed in 2014. Three years later, the doors are finally open.

The grounds of the new YMCA have been leased from the LAUSD for 40 years with two, 20-year extensions. The compact footprint holds a four-story parking structure with about 181 spaces, and a main building with the welcome center, community room, swimming pool, locker rooms, playing courts and exercise facilities.

It's open now from 5 a.m. to 10 p.m., Monday through Friday and 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday.

The old Westside Y building – opened back about 1972 – which was also the home of Uni's swim meets for many years, is being replaced by a mixed-use building with 76 residential units above ground-floor commercial space.(details here).

EXCITEMENT FOR "GREASE" BUILDING TOWARD APRIL 18 OPENING

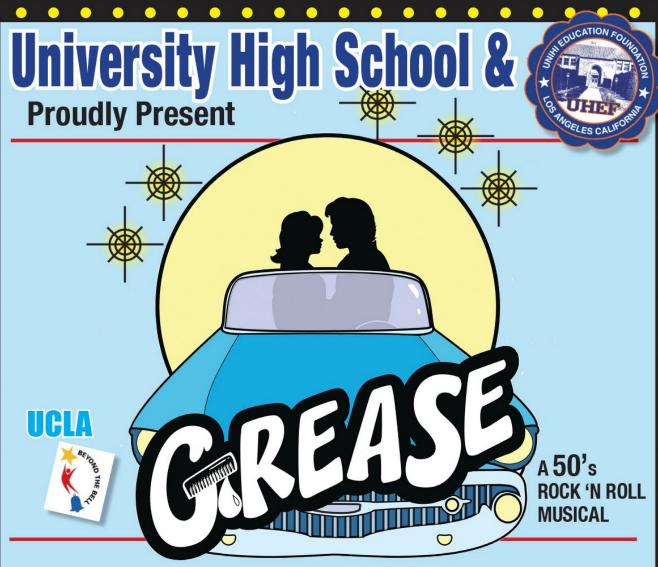

There are shows and then there are shows!

Uni's production of Grease is being widely anticipated on campus, as one of the most popular musicals in production across the country. Although originally written in Chicago in 1971, with specific ethnic references to that city, it is best known from Paramount's 1978 film that starred John Travolta and Olivia Newton-John as Danny Zuko and Sandy Olsson in their senior years at fictional Rydell High School.

Uni's Director of Theatre Arts, Ronnie Sperling '76 has a special connection to the show: he played Eugene Felsnick – the class nerd – in a national touring company version during the early 1980s.

The film version of Grease has special relevance for Los Angeles audience, since it was filmed locally. The exterior school scenes were shot at Venice High, the interior scenes mostly at Huntington Park High and the carnival at Marshall High.

While it's Sperling's first version of Grease at Uni, it's the third time the show has been produced on campus: first in Spring 1993 – making April the 25-year anniversary of the first campus production – and again in 2009. The 2018 shows are scheduled from 18-21 April at Stivelman Theater on campus. The details:

"Grease: School Version" is presented by special arrangement with SAMUEL FRENCH, INC.

KEEP 'EM COMING: MORE THAN 300 BOOKS DONATED TO THE UNI LIBRARY!

▶ Through the marvelous generosity of Uni alumni, more than 300 new books have been provided to the Uni library ... and you can join in!

Some 312 books have now been received by the library, from 27 donors who have self-identified and many more who wish to remain anonymous. We now have donors from the 1940s, '50s, '60s, '70s and '80s (★ = new donors):

Judy Wolfenstein
Kevin Young '75
Joseph Zukin, Jr. '43

Two important footnotes to our donor roster:

- Tracy Thayer Ireland '70 made her donations in memory of her late brother, Todd Thayer '71.
- Our apologies for misspelling Joe Zukin's name in the last edition. Sorry, Joe; it won't happen again!

How important are these new books? Here's Uni librarian (and alumna) Tascha Folsoi '86:

"It is my personal opinion that the many alumni who have helped to keep the library going with their generous donations are playing their own role in making Uni a successful school. If you do not see your name mentioned here, please email me at tascha.folsoi@gmail.com, so I can celebrate your contribution here and in the book plates we affix to the books as well as enter your donation in our records."

Want to donate? It's easy! The program uses Amazon's "Wish List" function. Anyone can go to the list (here), purchase one or more books and they will be sent to Uni directly within two business days.

The "University Senior High Library" Wish List enjoys Amazon Prime status thanks to Folsoi, so that you (as the purchaser) do not have to be an Amazon Prime member to buy any of the books!

Folsoi asks for help if you buy a book: "I think it would be better if we also asked people to email me their name and grad year along with items purchased, so I can email them back with the tax I.D. number and also remove the items from the list." You can contact her at tascha.folsoi@gmail.com. Yes, your book purchase is a charitable donation!

All purchasers of books for the library are permanently recognized with a donor plate on the inside front cover of each donated book. Ready to help? Here's the link to the Wish List:

▶ Uni sports report:

Follow the Wildcats on Twitter: @Utownsports

Boys/Basketball:

How about those Wildcats! Steve Ackerman '89 has his team off to a strong start, with a 7-0 record and the championship of the season-opening Whittier Tournament:

Nov.	21	Pioneer	Won	75-73	Whittier Tournament
Nov.	22	Hacienda Heights Wilson	Won	73-40	Whittier Tournament
Nov.	24	Corona	Won	86-65	Whittier Tournament
Nov.	25	Centennial	Won	73-59	Whittier Tournament
Dec.	01	Price	Won	70-64
Dec.	04	Los Angeles	Won	69-28	Jim Nakabara Classic
Dec.	14	South East	Won	56-46

The Wildcats are being led in scoring by 6-0 senior guard Daisone Hughes at 20.3 points per game, followed by soph 6-3 forward David Cheatom – the Whittier Tournament's Most Valuable Player – averaging 18.3 (and 6.5 rebounds per) and 6-2 senior guard Richard Wilson Jr. at 16.4 and a team-high 8.8 rebounds per game.

The annual Jim Nakabara Classic, scheduled for December 4-8, had to be cancelled as the LAUSD closed Uni on December 7-8 in view of the poor air quality due to the Skirball Fire.

You can see Uni's upcoming schedule, scores and statistics on MaxPreps.com here.

Ackerman is asking for alumni financial support for the team through a GoFundMe campaign. He notes that "Due to tremendous budget cuts to education in the State of California and within our school district, and further suffocating restrictions for how some funds are spent, the budget for prep athletics has been decimated.

"We need to fund-raise annually for our program just to maintain its infrastructure. Whether it is for the purchase of new uniforms, or replacement of damaged ones, new or replacement sports equipment (basketballs, athletic tape, first aid supplies, etc.), maintenance of the basketball facilities (courts, backboards, rims, nets), or entry fees for seasonal tournaments, it is an annual struggle to fund the necessities for our three teams (Varsity, J.V. & Frosh/Soph). Your help is greatly appreciated!"

▶ A recent tribute on the UHEF.org Web site to the late Duane LaRue, Uni's iconic football and gymnastics coach who passed away last May at age 81, from Greg White '65 (greg@timetobefit.com):

"He was my coach on the gym team from '63-65. We called him 'Lash Larue' after the popular Western motion-picture star of the time that was famous for using a bull whip. Coach LaRue will always have a warm spot in my memories of Uni Hi."

Emerson '71 grad Mary Lou (Adler) Westmoreland sends sad news of the death of her brother, Robert (Bob) Adler, Uni class of 1968, last July 17, at 66.

After Uni, Bob attended the University of Oregon and among other achievements, appeared as a bachelor on "The Dating Game" television show and was a popular drummer for local bands in the 1970s. He is survived by his wife Linda, son Justin Adler-Swanburg and sisters Peggy and Mary Lou.

Our condolences to the family and friends of all of our departed Warriors (we hope its too early for departed Wildcats!).

- The massive plaques saluting Coach Dick Kampmann, Uni sprinter (and double Olympic gold medalist) Mel Patton '43 and the school's first principal, Angus Cavanaugh, are mounted outside the north side of the South Gym. If you would like to see them, please note that Uni is a closed school and requires visitors to register. Please arrange your entry by calling Uni (310) 914-3500 and ask to schedule a date to come to see the plaques.
- We have received a number of inquiries about how one can obtain a copy of an old diploma or a proof of graduation. We have the answers (we think):
 - If you graduated within the past 10 years, call the Registrar's Office at Uni directly, and they can help you. Uni's telephone number is (310) 914-3500.
 - If you graduated before 2006, here's the link to the LAUSD Web page which includes instructions on how to obtain your records: http://achieve.lausd.net/transcripts. Please read the requirements carefully!

SIXTH PERIOD BELL

▶ In Uni's first year, the yearbook was titled La Estrella – The Star – but was changed to Chieftain for 1926 in honor of the school's Warrior mascot.

Thanks to an edict from the Los Angeles Unified School District, Uni became the "Wildcats" for the 1998-99 school year and the yearbook staff decided that in keeping with the change of name, the title Chieftain was no longer appropriate. For the 75th anniversary yearbook, published in the spring of 1999, students Neetu Madan and Joanne Gan suggested a new title of Paw Prints and it was adopted.

(No, we're not kidding. You can check out the 1999 edition of Paw Prints here; the explanation is on page 6.)

And that's the title of today's Uni yearbook! Maybe the future editors will come up with a new title for the 100th anniversary edition in spring of 2024?
